

S Tel celebrates first anniversary in Bihar & Jharkhand

Patna/Ranchi, December 27, 2010: S Tel, Bihar & Jharkhand's 'Aapka Apna Phone', concluded its first year of successful operations in the twin states and celebrated its first anniversary today. S Tel boasts of covering more than 19% of the population and approaching one million subscribers accessing its service across the two states.

S Tel pioneered the practice of providing bulk minutes on purchase of FRC (First Recharge coupon) wherein it offered first of its kind monthly and yearly bulk minute plans for low, mid and high user segments. Presently, a very simple proposition of '9 in One offer' through FRC 121, can serve diversified needs of consumers in the Bihar & Jharkhand market.

In a short span of time, S Tel has established its footprints across 120 towns & major cities including Patna, Jamsehdpur, Ranchi, Bokaro, Gaya, Muzaffarpur, Bhagalpur and Dhanbad and over 6000 villages in the state.

Speaking on the occasion, Mr. Shamik Das, CEO, S Tel stated, "S Tel consciously works towards placing its consumers at the centre of our business. In line with this philosophy it aims to serve unaddressed needs of the consumer, S Tel pioneered the practice of providing bulk minutes tariff in the country- an unparalleled service, when it launched in December, 2009. Moving a step forward from having pioneered in 'bulk minutes', it continued to introduce innovative concepts like 'Talk Today Free Tomorrow' and 'Bonus Plus' for Bihar and Jharkhand users.

Today, as S Tel completes an year, in a way of saying thanks to our consumers in Bihar & Jharkhand and as a part of our anniversary celebrations, we are happy to
